

– Torah Legacy –

This original hand-pulled serigraph depicts the Torah as a “tree of life.”

The “Etz Chayim Hee” quote, comparing the Torah to a “tree of life” is found at the top and bottom of the piece.

Do you see the individual holding the Torah scroll in front of a flaming tree of life?

Look behind the tree of life and see the tablets of the Ten Commandments, with a large Hebrew letter symbolizing each of the ten.

The Torah scrolls in the background contain the prayer of thanks for the special gift of the Torah.
